What is Catarrh?

Hyomei cures this Common and Disagreeable Disease.

Hyomei cures catarrh by the simple method of breathing it into the air passages and lungs. It kills the germs of the catarrhal poison, heals and soothes the irritated mucous membrane, enters the blood with the oxygen and kills the germs present there, effectually driving this disease from the system.

If you have any of the following symptoms, catarrhal germs are at work somewhere in the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes or tissues of the lungs.

offensive breath

dryness of the nose

stinging across the eyes

pain in back of the head

pain in front of the head tendency to take cold

burning pain in the throat

hawking to clear the throat pain in the chest

a cough

loss of sleep

loss of flesh

variable appetite

low spirited at times

raising of frothy mucus expectorating yellow matter

difficulty in breathing

feeling of tightness

across the upper part

of the chest

Hoarseness of voice

discharge from the nose stoppage of the nose at night

aching of the body

drooping in the throat

stopping back of the palate formation of crusts in the nose dryness of the throat

in the morning

loss of strength

spasms of coughing

cough short and hacking

ing cough worse at night and mornings

loss in vital force

a feeling of tightness

across the upper part

of the chest

Hyomei will cure the disease, destroy activity of all germ life in the respiratory organs, enrich and purify the blood with additional oxygen, and after a few days use of this treatment the majority of these symptoms will have disappeared.

In a few weeks the cure will be complete. Catarrh or catarrhal colds cannot exist when Hyomei is used. This is a strong statement, but W. B. Eastman emphasizes it by agreeing to refund your money if Hyomei does not cure.

Millinery Openings.

Three millinery openings were held during the past week, besides the displays of street hats that were shown by all the millinery stores.

A call at Miss L. C. French's store gave introduction to several new shapes for this season's wear: The polo turban in several sizes, the Tommy Atkins, the Continental and the Charlotte Corday. In trimmings ribbons are used more than they have been for a long time, and flowers will be freely used. A Paris hat of light blue chiffon trimmed with a bunch of small blue flowers and shades of violet velvet ribbon has had many admirers. A new departure is in the Lingerie hat, which will be much worn with the popular embroidered dresses. It is covered with embroidered linen, trimmed with Dresden ribbon, faced with shirred chiffon. It has a very summery appearance and is light and practical. Another very tasty creation was a flower turban of white hyacinths and foliage.

Among the hats found at Mrs. J. S. Weeks' opening last week were many pretty shapes in blue, green, brown and the Tuscan straws. The shapes this season are quite different from those of a year ago, and are worn lower over the face, with much of the trimming in the back, and the brim in front is narrower than in the past season. For trimmings the dainty pastel shades are popular, chiffon, maline and horse hair braids being considerably used. Among the pretty pattern hats is one in three shades of mulberry with foliage and fig fruit trimming; a chiffon crown with pink, blue and lavender velvet ribbon trimming; turbans in the popular colors and beautiful flower hats are some of the others shown.

Mrs. Harry B. Gordon is holding her millinery opening the first three days of this week and has some very attractive hats. She is making a specialty of children's hats, among which are the Napoleon shape, large Tuscan straws and shapes and sizes to suit every style. Among her hats for older people are many pretty combinations of delit blue shades, and very dainty acordion plaited lace effects.

Many visitors found their way to the new parlors occupied by Mrs. Harry Harden, where they were shown the Charlotte Corday, Gainsboro, tricone, poio, Tommy Atkins and other popular shapes, attractively trimmed, also the ready to wear hats in practical make-ups. The same styles and combinations are found in each place with just enough variety to make a visit to each one of special interest.

Mrs. A. Boucher will hold her spring millinery opening of New York pattern hats and tailor made hats Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

In another column Mrs. Patrick announces her spring millinery opening of street, tailored and dress hats, which will be held Thursday and Friday. Miss Albertine Lambert is assisting in her store as maker.

Miss Lora Morse announces her Easter opening on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Mrs. H. A. Belknap invites the ladies of St. Johnsbury and vicinity to her spring opening of pattern hats, turbans and toques on April 13, 14 and 15.

In the latter case the child was sick only a few days and it was not a pronounced case of this new disease. It has not been customary to report cases of pneumonia, but by a recent decision of the State Board of Health these will be reported hereafter. Following is the list as reported by our local physicians:

Whooping cough,	12

A Dangerous Habit.

Gladstone's Physician Gives Warning Against a Growing American Custom.

The growing habit amongst Americans of taking a mint tablet or some other so called digestive after eating a hearty meal, is something that Sir Andrew Clarke, M.D., Gladstone's physician, advises strongly against, saying, "It is absolutely dangerous to take into the stomach remedies which are popularly supposed to aid in the digestion of food."

There is nothing known to the science of medicine that can perform the work of the human stomach. Drugs do not and cannot digest the food. They simply decompose it. What can be more revolting or disgusting than the thought of taking something into the stomach that is going to turn the good food you have eaten into a mass of corruption.

The only way to overcome indigestion and its evil effects is to remove all irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines, and Mi-na is the only agent known that will do this.

When a Mi-na tablet is taken before each meal or every trace of irritation and inflammation is removed from the stomach and digestive system, and those organs will extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound healthy body. If you suffer with headaches, indigestion, flatulency, spots before the eyes, vertigo, or dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, or any stomach trouble, get a fifty cent box of Mi-na from W. B. Eastman one of our most reliable druggists, whose faith in this remedy is shown by his offer to return the money if Mi-na does not give complete satisfaction.
